ANNATA

Wine List

and beverage options

Annata means vintage in Italian, and this November we celebrate our very first one at 66 Chandos Street. Twelve months ago we opened the doors of our new home in St Leonards. To thank you for filling it with conversation, laughter and many memorable bottles, we invite you to our Anniversary Degustation.

Our host for the evening is one of our favourites, Nick Barlow, who will guide you through ten stunning wine tastings, including four of Australia's finest cuvées matched against benchmark wines from Burgundy, Bordeaux and New Zealand. With every course you will taste an Australian wine beside its rival from the rest of the world, hear the story behind each one, and you can decide for yourself who wins the round. Prizes will be on offer with lots of learning and laughter along the way.

Executive Chef Jordon Garcia's five-course anniversary menu will commence as we raise a glass of Devaux Cœur des Bar Blanc de Noirs; a Pinot Noir Champagne from the Côte des Bar.

The degustation will then unfold with four savoury courses, each teamed with two perfectly matched wines: a decade-old Mitchell McNicol Riesling from the Clare Valley stands beside Domaine Jacques Cacheux's Bourgogne Aligoté; Lenton Brae's Margaret River Chardonnay meets Clos Ostler from New Zealand's Waitaki Valley; Montalto's Tuerong Pinot Noir from the Mornington Peninsula compares against Château de Marsannay Les Favières; and Yarra Yering's celebrated Agincourt Cabernet Malbec closes the reds beside Château Malescasse from Bordeaux's Haut-Médoc. Our celebration finishes on a sweet note with a pour of Sticky Pig Late Harvest Pinot Gris from Wrattonbully.

Dates: Wednesday 25th November & Thursday 26th November 2026

Commencing at 7:00pm

Price: $240 per person

$216 per person for Annata Wine Lovers members

All-inclusive of ten wines and five course degustation.
All Dietary Requirements will be met. Bookings are essential.

PREMIUM WINES

BY THE 150 ml GLASS & HALF BOTTLE

2021 Domaine Ventoura Fourchaume Chablis Premier Cru, France
$37 glass or $83.50 half bottle

Thomas Ventoura represents the third generation of this Chablis family estate. The colour is pale straw with green reflections. The nose shows lifted citrus, green apple and white peach, layered with chalk, oyster shell and subtle hazelnut and brioche notes from lees ageing. The palate is precise and mineral-driven; flavours of lemon, saline and stone fruit are supported by vibrant acidity and a fine, textured mouthfeel. There is both breadth and freshness, with a long, focused finish showing flinty complexity and persistence.

2025 Chardonnay By Farr, Geelong VIC
$43 glass or $96.00 half bottle

By Farr was named Australia's Winery of the Year for 2025. The colour is pale gold with green highlights. The nose is restrained and precise: white peach, nectarine, grapefruit zest and flinty wet-stone minerality with subtle French oak spice. The palate is fine but firm, with bright acidity, concentrated flavour and well-integrated oak; white peach, wheat and a faint miso nuance from partial malolactic fermentation. The finish is long and clean, defined by mineral length and understated

2021 Chateau de Marsannay Les Favieres, Marsannay, Burgundy France
$42 glass or $94.00 half bottle

The winemaker is Sylvain Pabion, who joined Château de Marsannay in 2015 as chief winemaker. He has driven a quality revolution at the estate: introducing single-climat bottlings, organic viticulture, low-sulphur winemaking and whole-bunch fermentation. The estate is managed by Stéphane Follin-Arbelet under the ownership of Olivier Halley. The 2021 harvest was small due to severe April frosts. Vinification used cold maceration, alcoholic fermentation, then 13 months in 40% new oak with the balance in one-to-two-year barrels, followed by 3 months in tank. The colour is deep ruby-purple with a dark, shiny appearance. The nose offers ripe red and black fruits: cherry, blackcurrant and plum, with undergrowth, vanilla, earthy spice and subtle oak. The palate is powerful and fruit-rich with firm tannic structure; good concentration and fresh acidity provide balance.

2019 Domaines Comte de Malet Château Armens, Saint-Emilion
$36 glass or $80.00 half bottle

The Malet Roquefort family has been in Saint-Emilion since 1705, one of the appellation's oldest wine dynasties. Deep ruby-red with purple highlights. The nose shows ripe blackcurrant, blackberry and plum with liquorice, sweet spice and integrated oak. The palate is full and structured with silky, polished tannins, and fine balance between concentration and freshness. Long, fruit-driven finish with lingering spice. The Winemaker is Alexandre de Malet Roquefort appointed consulting oenologist Stéphane Derenoncourt, one of Bordeaux's most celebrated advisors. A beautiful Bordeaux.
